Traffic Hazard at Shantiniketan, Delhi

1175. SHRI G. Y. KRISHNAN : Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether the residents of Shantiniketan, New Delhi-21 (a colony of the Government Servants Co-operative House Building Society Ltd., Vasant Vihar, New Delhi) submitted a representation to the Lt. Governor, Delhi on the 27th February, 1993 highlighting the chaotic state of affairs created by the parking of more than dozen private buses hired by the Sadhu Vaswani Mission School on Street No. 2, where there is high density of traffic already—thrice a day (twice in the morning and once in the afternoon);

(b) whether the School Authorities have marked slots on the footpaths in front of the houses on Street No. 2 for parking these buses;

(c) whether apart from causing traffic hazards, these buses pose grave pollution and environmental hazards to the residents involved; and

(d) if so, what are the difficulties and which lie in the way of the Traffic Police in having these buses parked on the extreme left hand side of Street No 5, which is a wider road with lesser traffic ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED) : (a) The Office of the Lt. Governor, Delhi, has intimated that no letter appears to have been received at Raj Niwas on 27-2-93 from the residents of Shantiniketan, New Delhi, regarding traffic hazard at Shantiniketan.

(b) Yes, Sir. The School authorities have marked slots for 14 buses on the pavement.

(c) The Delhi Police has reported that the traffic is thin during mornings and afternoons when the students alight and board the buses. The parking of the buses does not cause any traffic or environmental hazard.

(d) The residents are opposed to the parking of the buses on the extreme left hand side of Street No. 5.

Issue of FCRI Number to Development Organisation

1176. SHRI S. MUTHU MANI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have taken any action to liberalise issuing of Foreign Contribution Regulations Act Numbers to development organisations;

(b) whether it is a fact that several complaints have been reported about the delay in issuing FCRA numbers to developmental organisations; and

(c) what is the number and details of applications pending with Government from the Developmental Organisations for issuance of FCRA Number?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) to (c) Registration is granted under the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 1976 to associations having a definite religious, economic, educational, cultural or social programme. As registration enables an organisation to receive funds from abroad without further prior approval, careful pre-scrutiny of eligibility is done before granting registration number. The decision of the Government is intimated to the associations as early as possible. No change in the procedure is contemplated.

As on 30-6-93, approximately 2,200 applications are pending.
